SD College Becomes The First Solar Powered College In Alappuzha

First Solar Powered College In Alappuzha

The Sanatana Dharma College popularly known as SD College is situated in the Alappuzha district. Recently they installed solar panels on the rooftops of their college building. This college got A+ NAAC accreditation.

The installation of solar panels aims to reduce the power bills and promote green and clean energy. The solar energy produced using solar panels will be used to power the college as well as excess power will be given to KSEB. For this purpose, the solar panels are connected to KSEB's grid. The payment for the power will be given annually.

This college was established in the year 1946 under the guidance of Sri K. Parthasarathy Iyengar and Sri V. Sundara Raja Naidu. This college gives good education for students. The solar energy initiative will surely improve the minds of students. They can understand the power of solar energy from their educational institution. To know more about this first solar powered college in Alappuzha please visit the below link.
